TEXTILES - Mill cloth and yarn - Transfer of licence to partners, legal heirs and nominees clarification - Instructions - Issued.

DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT.

Dated 3rd April 1952.

G.O.Ms.No.1457. Read the following:-

G.O.MsNo.61, Dev., dated 4-1-52.
From the Collector of Madurai Ref. 1573/51 dated 10-12-51.

ORDER:

The Collector of Madurai has brought to notice that it is quite common among merchants to allocate business to partners, legal heirs and nominees while effecting partition and enquires whether transfer of licences may be effected accordingly.

2. The Government consider that the transfer of a licence to a partner of a firm may be effected if he has been a partner of the firm from the date on which licence was first granted to the firm.

3. As regards transfer of licence to legal heirs, the orders issued in G.O.Ms.No.61, Development dated 4-1-52 will govern the case.

4. No transfer of licence should be made to a nominee under any circumstances. If a licensee wants to transfer the licence to another person of his choice, the request should be treated as voluntary surrender of licence and the licence should be cancelled. If the Collector considers the nominee as suitable, he may issue him a fresh licence on merits after obtaining the prior approval of Govt.

5. The case referred to in paragraph one of the letter from the Collector of Madurai cited may be disposed of according to the orders in para 2 above.
